metroPCS Dallas Marathon

Event mark and ad for Behringer Harvard's sponsorship of the event, benefitting the children of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital. I wrote the headline on the ad.

Helping Dreams Take Flight

On race day and beyond, we celebrate the children of Texas Scottish Rite Hospital

Behringer Harvard is proud to support the MetroPCS Dallas Marathon, benefitting Texas Scottish Rite Hospital. We applaud the race sponsors, volunteers, and participants of this important annual event.

The next year: metroPCS Dallas Marathon

Ads and social media for Behringer Harvard's sponsorship of the event, benefitting the children of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital. I wrote the headline on these ads too. I also shot the event photography, after years of participating as a runner.

Giving is in our DNA

"It's ingrained in our company culture and an essential part of our role as a responsible corporate citizen. Behringer and its employees seek to promote the economic strength and health and communities in which we do business. I'm proud that the company's community have a special focus on programs that champion the interests of children."
